Fears for missing teenager

POLICE are growing concerned for the welfare of a 15-year-old girl missing since the afternoon of Saturday, February 18.

Marlena Smuga, who was visiting family in the Tottenham area, was last seen by her aunt in Blackboy Lane at about 4pm.

She was wearing black leggings, a belt with a butterfly on and a black jacket.

Marlena has links to east London.

She is white, medium build, about 5ft 1ins tall with long brown hair dyed blonde, and brown eyes. She speaks with a Polish accent.

Reliable service

LONDON Underground is heading for its most reliable year since Transport for London (TfL) took responsibility for the Tube a decade ago, with passenger numbers soaring.

Delays are at their lowest since 2003/04 according to the latest performance figures for the Tube.

London Mayor, Boris Johnson, attributed the improvement in performance to measures that his team have introduced.

Council tax freeze

THE COUNCIL tax bill for Barking and Dagenham residents has been frozen for the fourth consecutive year.

The Council tax for 2012/13 is to remain at the current level (for a Band D property, at £1,016.40).

Councillor Rocky Gill, cabinet member for finance, said the news means Barking and Dagenham continues to have one of the lowest council tax in Greater London.

Music concert

CHILDREN from Dagenham are following in the footsteps of world-famous acts by performing at the O2 arena.

The Henry Green Primary School pupils, all aged nine to 11, will get their moment on stage at the Greenwich venue tonight (Thursday). They will be singing in a choir with thousands of other children from around the country. Young Voices, a group that organises children's concerts in arenas around the world, is behind the O2 show.

Valence House picks up top award

HISTORIC Valence House in Dagenham has been awarded the quality assured visitor attraction accreditation by Visit England.

Valence House is the only surviving manor house in Dagenham.

It dates back to medieval times and is still partially surrounded by a moat.

The house got its award thanks to its impressive new visitor centre, which holds the archives and local studies collection.

The centre provides a remarkable look at the story of Barking and Dagenham and its people throughout the ages.

There are archaeological finds from the stone Age, iron age and the Roman period.

The centre shows how the riverside industries have evolved, and village life when the area was once just pastures and meadows.

Staff at the centre can help visitors trace their family tree.

Most of Valence House is timber framed, the frames filled in with lath and plaster work.

Two rooms have wooden paneling dating from the late 16th Century.

After the First World War the Valence estate was compulsorily purchased by the London County Council for their Becontree Estate.

Fortunately the house was not demolished as happened to many local farmhouses.

When Dagenham Urban District Council was formed in 1926 it purchased Valence House from the LCC for use as offices.

The building was extended to the west to provide space for a council chamber on the upper floor.

A public library, council works depot and swimming pool were built near Valence House, and its grounds became a public park.

Valence House remained the council headquarters until the opening of the Civic Centre in 1937.

The house then became the headquarters of Dagenham public libraries.

Part of it was then used as a local history museum.

The Facts

THE HOUSE was named after Agnes de Valence, who in 1291, retired to Dagenham following the death of her third husband.

She was related to the Royal Family, her grandmother being Isabella of Angouleme, wife of King John.

Agnes lived at the original house until her death in 1309. This house was demolished and another house (the existing one) built on the same site shortly after her death.

Local roads, a public park, school, library and museum all still bear the Valence name.

The 1662 Hearth Tax reveals Valence House had 15 hearths.

Updated plans on East London renewable energy facility

Biossence East London (BEL) is seeking your views about updated plans for the renewable energy facility off Marsh Way in Rainham, and invites you to an exhibition to find out more.

Biossence's renewable energy facility seeks to:

- Cut 130,000 tonnes of east Londoners' waste that may otherwise be sent to landfill
- Use a fuel from locally derived household waste to produce enough renewable electricity for around 53,000 local homes
- Create around 35 full-time jobs and 100 construction jobs
- Potentially produce heat for neighbouring businesses
- Cut 127,000 tonnes of Carbon Dioxide equivalent of greenhouse gases from emission to the atmosphere

The public exhibitions will give you a chance to see the updated plans and ask questions of the project team.

Youngsters get arty to remember loved ones

CHILDREN who have been bereaved have been remembering their loved ones through an art day organised by Saint Francis Hospice.

Their aim on the day was to create a painting to celebrate the life of their special person to feature in an exhibition later this year.

All the children experienced the death of a parent or grandparent from a life-limiting illness.

Finished artwork featured a picture of an ice-cream, football themed picture, coloured dots and scenes with animals.

Among the youngsters who benefited from the day were brothers Liam and Jimmi Solomon, from Hornchurch, whose nan Anita Addison, from Dagenham, received care before passing away from cancer last July.

Liam, 14, painted dots and decorated a picture frame, said: "It was a good day. I enjoyed decorating the plates and talking to the other children."

Mum Allanna said: "The boys thoroughly enjoyed the day and what helped them was knowing they could be sad or happy, it didn't matter because everyone was in the same boat. Mum was treated with dignity and we were made to feel comfortable."

Sisters Anya and Paige Poole, aged eight and 13 respectively, from Barking, and their cousin, Tia Harris, were remembering their Granddad Jeffery Cocks, who died from bowel cancer last August.

Anya painted an ice-cream as he used to treat them to whatever flavours they liked and Paige created a mountain scene as he liked Wales.

Mum Susan said: "The girls got a lot out of the day, particularly because it showed them they were not the only ones who have lost someone close to them."

CREATIVE: Anya Poole.

MEMORY: Liam Solomon.

Drug dealer jailed for three years

A 31-YEAR-OLD man has been given a three year prison sentence for supplying drugs.

Bradley Nicholson, from Dagenham, was also given a 12 months sentence – both to be served concurrently – for possession of heroin.

The sentences were handed down at Snaresbrook Crown Court by Judge Zeidman on Monday.

The court heard Nicholson was arrested on May 12, 2011, when two plain clothed police officers patrolling on bicycles saw what appeared to be a drug deal taking place in Blackbourne Road, Dagenham.

On arrest, Nicholson was found to be in possession of seven wraps of cocaine and two wraps of heroin. His mobile phone contained a number of messages relating to the sale of drugs.

DC Nainesh Desai of Barking and Dagenham CID said: "This case is a perfect example of safer neighbourhoods and CID working together to combat the crimes that can make life miserable for local residents."

The manor house with an explosive historical past

EASTBURY Manor House has a rich and varied history.

Within its four walls, centuries ago, Guy Fawkes and his men thrashed out a plan to bring the British establishment to its knees – the Gunpowder Plot.

Volunteers and historians at the house in Eastbury Square, Barking, made the discovery after finding out Eastbury was owned by Anne Steward, widow of Clement Sysley, its original builder.

Anne Steward did not live at Eastbury but rented it to John Moore, an Alderman of London.

An inventory of goods belonging to John Moore at his death in 1603 shows his Spanish Catholic widow Maria, her daughter Maria Perez and son-in-law Lewis Tresham were living at Eastbury at the time.

Lewis was the brother of Francis Tresham and cousin of Robert Catesby, both among the gunpowder plotters.

On November 9 1605, just days after Guy Fawkes was arrested in the Parliament cellars, investigations linked him to Barking.

State papers revealed a boat was hired out to Fawkes, who was using the alias Johnson, in which he and others had travelled in disguise from Barking to and from the French port of Gravelines.

Fawkes had made arrangements to make this route his getaway if the plot had succeeded.

The historians also discovered that after being the country house of gentry families for the earlier part of its history, by the 18th and 19th Centuries Eastbury (sometimes known as Eastbury Hall) was inhabited by a succession of tenants such as yeoman farmers, butchers and graziers.

They fattened cattle on the rich marshland pasture before selling them in the London markets.

The house gradually fell into decay. One of its two octagonal stair turrets was pulled down in the early 19th Century, and one room was even used as a stable.

It was in danger of complete demolition until 1918 when it was bought by the National Trust.

Eastbury once enjoyed an isolated position on raised ground with uninterrupted views of the Thames across the marshland.

The property, built during the reign of Elizabeth I, unusually – sits among an enormous housing estate built in the 1940s to accommodate residents families bombed out of London during the Second World War.

Dear reader,

There are now just a few weeks to go before most homes in Greater London and parts of the Home Counties start their switch to digital TV on 4 April.

For anyone who has Freeview services* or an old analogue TV there are two important stages to remember:

4 April – Switchover stage one:

The switchover begins. Analogue BBC Two will be switched off permanently and the higher powered BBC digital services will launch. All Freeview TVs and boxes will need to be re-tuned on or after this date.

18 April – Switchover stage two:

The remaining analogue channels will be switched off and the rest of the digital services launched. All Freeview TVs and boxes will need to be re-tuned again.

Your switchover dates depend on where you live. To check your dates, enter your postcode at digitaluk.co.uk/postcodechecker or call 08456 50 50 50. Switchover makes Freeview available to virtually every home, including those that can't currently receive it, as it allows the digital signal to be strengthened and transmitted for the first time from the local relay transmitters.

Most homes will be able to receive more than 40 channels and some will receive around 15. It will also provide additional services such as audio description for viewers with disabilities. Homes that have satellite or cable on all their TV sets will not need to do anything.

If you have questions go to digitaluk.co.uk or call 08456 50 50 50.

Thank you,

Deborah Bain

Get set for switchover

With just weeks to go until the first analogue TV signals are switched off in London and parts of the Home Counties, Yellow Advertiser has teamed up with Digital UK to provide readers with this special guide to digital TV switchover.

What is switchover?

Digital TV switchover is the biggest change in television since the introduction of colour. Analogue signals are about to be switched off and replaced with new digital services. This will make Freeview available for the first time to thousands of homes watching local 'relay' transmitters in areas such as Finchley, Forest Row, High Wycombe and Sevenoaks.

Digital UK is the independent organisation set up by the broadcasters to lead the switchover. It provides an advice line and website to help with general questions about getting digital TV and preparing for the switchover.

Deborah Bain, Digital UK's London Manager, says: "Switchover in London and the Home Counties will be the biggest in the UK, and will change how television is broadcast forever. I'm delighted that viewers across the capital and beyond, who have previously been unable to get Freeview services, will soon be able to do so. Most people are well prepared; but for those who still have questions, we are here to help."

How will switchover happen?

Switchover will happen in two stages. If you currently receive your TV signal through an aerial, in either analogue or digital format (e.g. Freeview, Top Up TV, BT Vision), then you'll need to make a note of the information below. Televisions connected to a cable or satellite service are not affected.

Stage one – 4 April 2012:

In the early hours, analogue BBC Two will be switched off and replaced with a new digital signal. Local 'relay' TV transmitters will also start to broadcast the BBC's other digital channels for the first time.

Readers switching to digital for the first time via Freeview, Top Up TV or BT Vision will now be able to set up their equipment. Homes already watching these services should retune their digital boxes or IDTVs.

Stage two – 18 April 2012:

All remaining analogue channels will be switched off and replaced with additional digital services. Everyone watching Freeview, Top Up TV or BT Vision will need to retune their equipment again to receive all available channels.

On both dates, these changes will happen overnight. For most viewers, services will be restored by the morning. Households receiving their TV signal from local relay transmitters will receive new digital services later in the day and should tune in for the first time or retune from this point.

Common questions

Where can I get face-to-face advice on switchover?

Digital UK has been working closely with charities to organise local advice points during switchover. These will be staffed by trained volunteers and are open to everyone. There are also Digital UK roadshows in the region. To find out where your local advice point or roadshow will be, visit digitaluk.co.uk/londonevents or call 08456 50 50 50.

What about my video recorder?

After switchover, video and analogue DVD recorders will still play back and record, but you won't be able to record one channel while you watch another. If you want to continue doing this after switchover, the simplest way is to get a digital TV recorder. These also allow you to record a whole series at the touch of a button, and pause and rewind live TV.

Will I need a new aerial to receive Freeview, and can I use a set-top aerial?

Your current analogue reception is the best indicator: if you receive a good analogue signal from your existing aerial now, you will probably receive a good picture after switchover (as long as you have converted your equipment in order to receive digital). However, if you get a very snowy picture now, it is likely that you will get a poor digital TV picture.

At least 50 per cent of set-top aerials should work after switchover, but using a rooftop aerial is more reliable. Most rooftop aerials will work fine after switchover, though a small proportion of aerials are likely to need replacing to receive Freeview. Viewers served by the Hemel Hempstead and Reigate transmitters will need a wideband aerial to be sure of receiving all available channels.

Digital UK recommends that you wait until after switchover to see if your aerial needs replacing in order to avoid having unnecessary work carried out.

Where can I find a good aerial installer?

Look for a Registered Digital Installer (RDI) with the 'digital tick' logo. Go to rdi-lb.tv or call Digital UK on 0845 650 50 50 for more information. If you can't find an RDI locally, look for someone with Associate RDI or CAI Plus status – or ask your local electrical retailer.

What channels will I get?

Which channels you receive will depend on which transmitter you receive your signal from. Viewers served by a local 'relay' transmitter will receive around 15 Freeview channels for the first time. These will include BBC One, BBC Two, ITV1, Channel 4 and Channel 5, plus all the other channels from the BBC (those funded by the licence fee) and some other services from the public-service broadcasters.

Viewers served by a larger 'main' transmitter will receive these channels as well as some extra services from commercial broadcasters. These extra channels are also available via satellite. You can check which Freeview channels are available in your area by using the postcode checker at digitaluk.co.uk, or by calling 08456 50 50 50. This also gives you information about satellite and cable options in your area.

Getting digital television

If you only receive five or fewer analogue channels through an aerial on any of your sets, you'll need to think about converting them for switchover – otherwise you risk being faced with a blank screen once analogue signals are switched off.

There are three main ways to switch to digital TV:

- Convert your existing analogue TV using a digital box (e.g. Freeview, Top Up TV or BT Vision).

- Have a digital TV service, such as satellite, cable or broadband TV, installed for you. Providers include Sky, freesat, Virgin Media and Tiscali TV.

- Buy a new TV with digital (Freeview or freesat) built in.

Remember, almost everyone will be able to watch Freeview after switchover – even homes currently out of coverage. You can check the options for going digital in your area, and what channels will be available through your aerial, using the postcode checker at digitaluk.co.uk. Extra channels are available through other digital TV services, such as satellite or cable.

Virtually any TV set, including black and white ones and those without Scart sockets, can be converted using a digital box.

The Switchover Help Scheme helps 'those most in need to switch to digital television'

The Switchover Help Scheme

Thousands of people in the London TV region have already taken up help from the Switchover Help Scheme. Run by the BBC under an agreement with the Government, it's an official scheme which makes switchover easy for older and disabled people by giving practical help to switch one TV in their home.

People are eligible for the Help Scheme if they are:

- aged 75 years or over;
- eligible for attendance or constant attendance allowance, or mobility supplement, or disability living allowance;
- registered blind or partially sighted;
- or have been living in a care home for six months or more.

If you're eligible, you will be offered equipment that's easy to use, delivery or installation and a demonstration of how to use it, together with a choice of options. We will also check your aerial and upgrade it where we can, if it's needed. There is a freephone number to call for help while you get used to things.

Most people will be asked to pay £40 towards the standard offer of help. For eligible people on income-related benefits, it's free. Eligible people can also choose from a range of other Help Scheme options, sometimes at a higher cost.

If you know an older or disabled person who might still need help to switch to digital TV, you could lend a helping hand and give them the message about the Switchover Help Scheme. Even if they have digital TV already, they can get help to switch another TV set in their home.

All you need to do to get the help is respond to the information pack which has been sent to every eligible person's home. But you must respond to get the help. The Help Scheme will close for applications in the London TV region on 18 May 2012.

How to retune

Viewers watching Freeview, Top Up TV or BT Vision will need to a full retune their equipment at both stages of switchover in order to continue receiving services. Retuning is also required from time to time to access new channels as they become available.

To do a full retune your Freeview, Top Up TV or BT Vision equipment, follow these steps (these instructions are a guide only – each product works slightly differently).

1. Switch on your digital box or digital television
2. Press 'menu' on the remote control
3. Select 'set up' or 'installation' option
4. Select 'first time installation' option (sometimes called 'factory reset', 'full retune' or 'default settings')
5. Press "OK" if your equipment asks if you want to delete all your channels – don't worry this is normal.
6. Channels will be automatically installed. This may take a few minutes, and your equipment may shut down and restart

After a retune, if you are not receiving your preferred regional service, you are likely to find your preferred services further down the channel list. If you want to make your preferred services easier to find, you can either use the 'favourites' list or 'channel settings'. See your instruction manual for more details.

If you find you are missing some channels or your equipment has stopped working, visit digitaluk.co.uk/retuning for more information. If you can't fix it yourself, you may need to call out an installer (see 'Common questions').

To watch a short video showing you how to retune, and for specific re-tuning instructions for the most popular Freeview products, visit digitaluk.co.uk/retuning.

To have your event considered for publication, send the details AT LEAST 14 DAYS before the issue date to: What's On, Yellow Advertiser, Acorn House, Great Oaks, Basildon, SS14 1AH. You can e-mail us at: letters@yellowad.co.uk PLEASE NOTE: We cannot guarantee that all entries will be included. However, you can add the details of your event to our website at www.yellowad.co.uk

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', ('T') etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;

(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reason, the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement which the appointed agent fails to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A Box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Progress made by WGEL athletes

Athletics

WOODFORD Green athletes focused on The McCain City Challenge at Lee Valley where there were victories for Tara Bird and Richard Alleyne representing London North.

Bird stepped down to 400m and was a comfortable winner by almost 1.5 seconds in a season's best of 54.92 seconds.

Also winning over 60m hurdles was Alleyne, who recorded 7.95 seconds.

In the women's equivalent, Sarah Claxton was below her best as she placed fourth in a close race with 8.46 seconds.

In the women's 1500m, Jess Sparke enjoyed a rare indoor outing and placed second with 4m19.80 seconds while in the men's race, Alex Cornwell was fifth with 3m55.01 secs. Over 1500m and stepping in at short notice, Kathrine Foy placed sixth in the women's race with 5m03.52 secs and later contributed a 400m leg in the medley relay.

Elsewhere, Joseph Dewar showed further improvements in the Windsor Open over both 60m and the long jump.

The 16-year-old set another personal best of 6.93 seconds over 60m, going back to the top of this season's UK rankings and moves him into 17th on the UK's all-time lists.

Dewar was unable to compete in his planned second race over 60m, because he was busy long-jumping.

Here too he made significant progress as he leaped to a personal best of 7.17m - also taking him back to the top of this year's UK rankings, and to 20th on the UK all-time lists for his age group.

However, the mark is believed to be the best ever indoors by a UK Under-17 athlete.

Also at Eton, Dan Davis ran twice over 60m hurdles including a season's best of 8.09 secs, and also ran twice over 60m flat recording 7.17 secs on each occasion.

Outdoors at Loughborough, UKA held a trials meeting to guide selection for the Winter European Throws Competition.

Mark Dry was in great early season form, setting a personal best and WGEL club record of 73.36m, not far away from the Olympic Games 'B' standard of 74.00m, and a mark which moves him to 12th on the UK all-time list.

In Melbourne, Australia, two Woodford athletes who already have the Olympic 'A' standard were in action.

In the triple jump, Commonwealth champion Tosin Oke placed second after a consistent series which saw his best jump at 16.85m, and his best legal mark at 16.82m.

Yousef Abdi won the 3000m steeple-chase with 8m35.29secs.

PROGRESS: Joseph Dewar.

Returning Nolan guides Irons to three points

West Ham United

WEST Ham United kept up the pressure on Championship leaders Southampton with a 2-0 victory at Cardiff City on Sunday.

Kevin Nolan, who returned from a three match ban, set the Irons on their way two minutes before half-time with George McCartney killing off the game in the 77th minute.

Boss Sam Allardyce hailed Nolan for the impact he made.

He said: "Kevin Nolan is a mid-fielder goalscorer, he's not a mid-fielder playmaker.

"I do think he made a difference today. The players have done terrifically well while he's been missing through suspension, but he's a big player for us and he showed that today. As a manager, everybody wants the big players fit and playing."

The Bluebirds, recovering from their Carling Cup heartbreak against Liverpool last weekend, dominated possession but it was the Hammers who should have taken the lead midway through the first half.

Jack Collison nodded the ball across goal from Henri Lansbury's cross but Nicky Maynard blazed over.

Cardiff's best chance came from Aron Gunnarsson's 25-yard drive which skipped past the post but it was West Ham who took a half-time lead.

The Bluebirds paid the price for sloppy play outside their area after pressure from Maynard, who played in Nolan to curl past keeper David Marshall.

It should have been two for the Irons after 52 minutes when Nolan fed in Maynard but his toe-poke went wide.

Cardiff were finding it difficult to gain a foothold in the match although they nearly levelled when Mark Hudson headed over from Gunnarsson's long throw.

West Ham were breathing a sigh of relief when Peter Whittingham's free-kick hit the post which beat Irons keeper Robert Green all ends up.

And they breathed even easier with 13 minutes left when McCartney's cross from the left was charged down, but the full-back reacted quickest to drive past Marshall from an acute angle.

It was not Cardiff's afternoon when Kenny Miller hit the crossbar with a header in stoppage time but for the Hammers, they closed the gap to one point behind Southampton.

Clarets grind out victory while Fleet suffer late heartbreak

Non League Football

CHELMSFORD City boosted their play-off hopes after edging out Hampton & Richmond Borough 1-0 at the Melbourne Stadium on Saturday.

Dave Rainford's penalty on the hour mark was enough to separate the two sides leaving the Clarets in fourth place, 11 points behind leaders Woking, but more importantly, 11 points ahead of Dover Athletic outside the play-offs.

Thurrock's plight at the bottom continued, losing 1-0 at home to play-off hopefuls Sutton United, Kyle Vassell netting the winner on 85 minutes.

Billericay Town's lead at the top of Ryman League Premier has been cut down to three points.

Blues drew 1-1 at in-form Wealdstone after Glenn Poole cancelled out Richard Jolly's opener for Stones.

AFC Hornchurch drew closer thanks to their 2-0 victory over another in-form side, Concord Rangers. Martin Tuohy gave the Ursins a 19th minute lead, but their task was made tougher following the dismissal of captain Elliot Styles on 33 minutes.

It did not affect them as Fola Orlonise doubled their lead on 47 minutes and they held on.

Canvey Island kept their play-off hopes alive with a 3-1 victory over fellow chasers Hendon. The visitors went ahead through Carl McCluskey on 35 minutes, but the Gulls overturned the deficit in the second half, Rob King levelling on 54 minutes and Bradley Woods Garness (65, 90) netting a double to leave them in seventh.

East Thurrock United bolstered their mid-table position with a 4-2 victory over Metropolitan Police. Sam Higgins scored a hat-trick with Marc Gorrill also on the scoresheet, while Ty Smith and Jay Lovett initially gave Met a 2-1 lead.

Struggling Aveley put up a brave fight at promotion hopefuls Lowestoft Town, but it ended in a 1-0 defeat, with a shot deflecting off Joe Francis in the 88th minute.

The relegation battle in Ryman League Division One North is hotting up with Ilford lifting themselves above Ware at the bottom thanks to their 3-2 victory over Cheshunt.

A Glenn Williamson own goal and a Rob Carter penalty put Ilford two up in 18 minutes. Andrew West and Wes Pullen levelled but Dan Abioye scored the winner in the 65th minute.

Ilford are two points behind Great Wakering Rovers outside the drop zone who played out a goalless draw at home with Heybridge Swifts.

Brentwood Town's push for a play-off place faltered with a 1-0 defeat at home to leaders Leiston through Rhys Henry's second half goal.

Tilbury and Redbridge remain in the play-off mix in seventh and eighth respectively following their 1-1 draw.

Alex Read put the Dockers ahead with 20 minutes left, but the Motormen snatched a draw the death through Conor Mead's own goal.

Grays Athletic's play-off push is stuttering following their 3-2 defeat in a fiery contest at Soham Town Rangers.

Joao Carlos put them ahead but it started to go wrong for Grays in 61 minutes when Paul Olima saw red.

This unsettled Grays and the match was turned in Soham's favour with three goals in nine minutes through Michael Simpson (73), Scott Carter (80) and Paul Jones (82).

Nathan Gordon (86) setup a tense final few minutes but defeat saw Grays drop to ninth.

Romford won 2-0 over fellow mid-table side Waltham Forest, with two goals in 12 minutes from Chris Sullivan (39) and Kurt Smith (51), while Maldon & Tiptree went down 3-0 at home to Potters Bar Town, James Gerishfield with a brace following Elvis Balic's opener.

Midweek results:

Blue Square South - Dover Athletic 2-1 Chelmsford City.

Ryman League Premier - Horsham 1-3 Aveyle; Wingate & Finchley 3-3 East Thurrock United; Harrow Borough 0-3 Concord Rangers; AFC Hornchurch 0-1 Hastings United.

Ryman League Division One North - Heybridge Swifts 1-3 Harlow Town; Redbridge 1-0 Cheshunt; Chatham Town 1-0 Great Wakering Rovers; Brentwood Town 4-2 Romford; Tilbury 4-2 Soham Town Rangers.

Dagenham & Redbridge

Heavy defeat for Daggers

TEN-MAN DAGENHAM & Redbridge fell back to the bottom of League Two on Tuesday night after being on the end of a 4-0 rout to leaders Swindon Town.

Goals from Billy Bodin, Joe Devera, substitute Luke Rooney and former Daggers favourite Paul Benson, plus results going against them elsewhere saw John Still's men dragged back to the foot.

Their cause was made even more difficult when Josh Scott saw red after the half hour mark.

Still said: "I was pleased with my player's efforts against a good Swindon side who are going up. Coming here with 11 men was hard enough but the sending off made it even harder. I have not seen a replay but Josh said it was a harsh decision."

The Robins, managed by former West Ham favourite Paolo di Canio, nearly took a 21st minute lead but Bodin's effort hit the post.

However he was soon on the scoresheet, finishing off Benson's cross.

After Scott was given his marching orders for a tackle on Oliver Risser, Devera extended Robins' lead on 59 minutes with a header.

Rooney put the game beyond doubt minutes later before Benson scored against his former club 15 minutes from time with a tap in.

Leyton Orient

First half costs O's

LEYTON Orient boss Russell Slade was left rueing his side's first half performance after his side went down 4-2 to League One relegation battlers Wycombe Wanderers on Tuesday night.

Orient found themselves 4-0 down at half-time following goals from Stuart Beavon, Paul Hayes, Matt Bloomfield and Ben Strevens.

But the second half was much better for Slade's men who at least showed some fighting spirit although in vain, with Matt Spring and Marc Laird pulling goals back.

Slade said: "The second half was important to us psychologically because, forget the football, that was a life thing for me for us to come out and be counted and be responsible."

"We needed to stand up, be men and not hide on the pitch and thankfully we took the game to them and looked a different proposition."

"I didn't see an urgency from us in the first half. I didn't see us have any desire or take the game to the opposition. And in terms of our defending work, I thought it was really poor. It won't be easy for us to forget that first half."
